The 2019 Royal Cape 530 Majestic "Walkabout" has graced the Miami and Annapolis Boat Shows, representing the Royal Cape brand with distinction. This exceptional catamaran offers unparalleled value for discerning buyers. If you visited these shows, you likely recall seeing Walkabout as she stands out from the crowd of production model catamarans. With continuous generous support from the manufacturer, you can be assured that this yacht is in top-tier condition.

Walkabout has sailed on family adventures along the U.S. East Coast to the idyllic Bahamas and enjoys the brackish water of the Chesapeake Bay as its home port. With excellent craftsmanship and rich finishes, Walkabout's interior luxury and comfort are only second to the safety features the naval architects built into the 530: oversized high stainless rails, flat, uncluttered decks, and a bulkhead-protected helm position. Walkabout is your ticket to safe and luxurious coastal cruising or circumnavigating adventures.

This is your opportunity to own the majestic lifestyle you've always dreamed of at an exceptional value.
